Pleasant Valley Wine Company

For a historic perspective on winemaking, this is the place! The Pleasant Valley Wine Company, popularly known as the Great Western Winery, located near the village of Hammondsport, New York is the oldest winery in the Finger Lakes region. Established in 1860, the winery proudly displays the designation U.S. Bonded Winery No. 1 and has eight remarkable stone buildings listed on the National Register of Historic Places.

Chateau Renaissance Wine Cellars

The oldest and most traditional way to make sparkling wine was supposedly developed by Dom (Pierre) Perignon, a Benedictine Monk in the Champagne district of France, born in 1638, and is known as Méthode Champenoise. The Demay family has brought this tradition from France to us, here in the US and the wines are amazing! There is no better way to end this great trip!
